Rocket sighting double header

- Mission ID is “Iridium 4”
- Serendipitous illumination conditions occurred for two phases of this Space-X mission, the initial launch, and the second stage circularization burn half way around the planet
- Of more interest to rocket spotters was the several-second firing of stage 2 visible against early dawn from South Africa
- Such descriptions and videos are valuable to help characterize nominal propulsive events in a commercial spaceflight program which isn't nearly as transparent as NASA's
- Such information is useful in assessing imaging of other SpaceX events with potentially off-nominal performance
- Potential of THIRD observation. of de-orbit burn. is not confirmed
- Launch imaging was MUCH more spectacular but less useful for analysis, although several new ascent staging and jettison visual features were seen and recorded

Outline

- Mission parameters
 - “The instantaneous launch window is at 5:27 p.m. PST on Friday, December 22, or 1:27 UTC on Saturday, Dec 23. ”
- The South African Stage-2 second burn imaging
 - Ground views
 - Onboard views of engine firing, fuel dumping
- The California freak-out over the launch
 - Why so many viewers couldn't believe it was a rocket
 - Why many viewers DID note novel visual features
 - Why wilder stories give insight into general 'UFO reports'

DISCUSSION

<https://forum.nasaspaceflight.com/index.php?topic=43940.360>

General information for Iridium flights 1-5 & 7-8

Payload Mass: 8600kg for 10 satellites + 1000kg for dispenser = 9600kg

Launch orbit: 625km, 86.66 degrees

Operational orbit: 778km, 86.4 degrees

Jonathan's Space Report No. 743 [Corrected]

Ten more Iridium communications satellites were launched on a Falcon 9 from Vandenberg on Dec 23. No attempt was made to recover the first stage (B1036, on its second flight), although it is rumoured that an attempt to recover half of the nose fairing was made. The launch came at local sunset, so the rocket plume was illuminated and widely observed in the southern California area. The second stage was deorbited after deploying the payloads.

Something a little new this time with airspace restrictions for this launch. There is a TFR posted downrange from the launch as an extension to the active warning area (W-537). This hasn't been the case with any of the earlier Iridium launches this year. I'll ask the question over on the discussion thread, but is there any difference in launch azimuth this time around?

SpaceX iridium 4 launch 2nd engine startup seen in South Africa!!

SpaceX launch 2nd engine startup at 4:20am saturday [UTC + 2] [prelaunch timeline: 02:19:24 UTC] morning 23rd of December 2017 in johannesburg South Africa. What a spectacular site indeed!! Will be uploading the proper 4k video over the next 2 days...please be patient as I am enhancing the video and upload speeds are terrible..

[prelaunch timeline: 02:19:24 UTC]

“Anything 4 tech” follow-up comments

- Oberg question: “I'm presuming you saw it In the east, moving south to north? How high [elevation angle]? Estimate duration of pluming? Any post-burn fuel dump indications? ”
- “I don't have a sextant so it's not accurate but elevation was about 35 degrees from the horizon in ESE direction going from south to North and yes the post burn fuel dump (about the size of a bowls ball) in the sky and main burn was visible as the sun was just starting to rise so the vapors were being refracted by the sunlight
- The duration was about 3 mins long....

Additional South African reports

- from Gerald Pshyk 12/27 9 am cst
- “Same thing was seen in South Africa. I guess Africa now also has SpaceX launches. I have the video as proof btw. Not on a link. It was a video that was sent to me. My kids live there and a friend of theirs filmed it. It was at the South Gate shopping mall. “
- No further information has been received from Pshyk.
- Extensive inquiries with SA astronomy clubs and news media have uncovered no other observations, the apparition was apparently sufficiently unimpressive so as to escape notice.

Debated here, too...

FALCON-9 SECOND STAGE

OPERATIONAL FEATURES OF THIS STAGE, PARTICULARLY DISPOSAL PRECEDURES AFTER COMPLETION OF PAYLOAD DELIVERY, ARE NOT VERY WELL DOCUMENTED FOR THE PUBLIC. EVEN POSTFLIGHT REPORTS OF DEORBIT OPERATIONS REMAIN COMPANY PROPRIETARY INFORMATION [AS IS THEIR RIGHT]. CONSEQUENTLY, PRIVATE ANALYSTS FOCUS ON RELEASED VIDEOS TO TRY TO DETERMINE UNRELEASED PRACTICES

EFFECT OF SECOND BURN ['CIRCULARIZATION']

- 10 sec burn raises velocity from 27101 to 26662 Meters/sec
- DELTA-V OF 439 m/s. so accel about 4 G's [One 'G' is 9.8 meters/sec/sec]
- Gain of forward speed raises far end of orbit [opposite side of Earth] by several hundred miles, circularizing it.

- INITIAL LAUNCH INTO ORBIT....
- PLACES STAGE-2 UNTO TRANSFER ELLIPSE.
- HALFWAY AROUND, DO 'CIRCULARIZATION' BURN
- THEN DEPLOY PAYLOADS....
- AND SOON AFTER, SMALL 'BRAKING BURN'....
- TO DROP BACK INTO ATMOSPHERE.

WHAT'S THE CONNECTION?

- THE VIDEO IS CLEARLY SHOWING THE FALCON 9 BURN
- WHAT ELSE MIGHT THE ON-BOARD VIDEO SHOW ABOUT THE BURN?

ANALYSIS OF STAGE-2 BURN VIDEO

- 1 ALTHOUGH AT LIMITS OF RESOLUTION THESE IMAGES ARE VALUABLE
- 2 THE VIDEO WAS TAKEN WITH A BRACED CAMERA, PERHAPS TRIPOD
- 3 WITHOUT CONFIRMATION, IT APPEARS THE WITNESS COULD HAVE BEEN AWARE OF THE LAUNCH AND THE VISIBILITY POSSIBILITY
- 4 THE INITIAL FRAMES ARE CONSISTENT WITH THE PREVIOUSLY-OBSERVED TWIN GAS-EJECTION PRACTICE PRE-IGNITION
- 5 THIS MISSION'S TRANSMISSION OF DEORBIT BURN AND LONG AFTERWARDS ALLOWED CHARACTERIZATION OF NOMINAL SPIN RATE
- 6 MOST IMPORTANTLY, THE DEORBIT BURN PLUME SHOWS CLEARLY. AND IS CONSISTENT IN DURATION AND DIRECTION WITH OTHER OBSERVED FALCON STAGE2 DEORBIT BURNS
- 7 A RELIABLE CHARACTERIZATION OF 'NORMALCY' PROVIDES A BASELINE TO COMPARE OTHER OBSERVATIONS WHOSE DIFFERENCES MAY INDICATE 'ABNORMALCY' AND PROVIDE CLUES FOR ASSESSING FLIGHT ANOMALIES

Final burn – deorbit – might have been observable

DEORBIT BURN
?? 02:48 UTC

- Jonathan McDowell : “We know the stage impacted the Pacific probably around 0327 UTC. My guess is a deorbit burn of around 170 m/s at 0245-0250 UTC over the Arctic, or possibly ...over Alaska.”
- AST time zone UTC – 8, so 6:45 PM
- Circ burn was 0219
- International satellite designators were 2018-083A etc but booster never received one since it wasn't in orbit long enough

TO Alaska all-sky camera operators [July 2 query]

- I'm a retired 'rocket scientist' with a hobby of collecting worldwide observations of missile/space activity, both to see how well [or not] witnesses actually describe startling sky spectacles, and also to see how much insight such observations might provide to analysts trying to diagnose anomalies on such missions.
- On December 23, 2017, at approx 0245 UTC, a SpaceX Falcon9 second stage rocket performed a deorbit burn while approaching Alaska from the north at an altitude of 625 km. Sun elevation angle of about -16 deg would have made anything above about 300 km in that region fully sunlit at that date/time.
- The object would have been a bright nebulosity of naked-eye visibility, moving at airplane speed, with a sudden brief [a few seconds] rocket plume that observers of other missions have described as a 'headlight in fog' projected forward. A precise analogy could be this deorbit plume of the same rocket type, seen in Norway a few months ago.
- Aside from the thrill of identifying another sky mystery, the more practical scientific value is in characterizing the appearance of space plume events for programs [such as SpaceX] that are not nearly as transparent to the public as NASA's. Observations of nominal events helps identify events involving problems, even failures.

MEANWHILE, BACK IN CALIFORNIA & ARIZONA – BURN 1

<https://forum.nasaspaceflight.com/index.php?topic=44273.msg1763151#msg1763151>

- Absolutely incredible. OMG!!! Launch was sensational. Then the sun lit up the plume. WOW. But it was just getting started. Stage sep and boostback had the usual amazing effects at night. However, the sun lit up the fairings. I could see both for over two minutes. One all the way through reentry. Eventually the hills blocked it. Then there was the first stage. The sun lit it up against a black backdrop. I saw that the whole way until the hill got in the way. Nitrogen thrusters visible, but the entry burn from a couple hundred miles away was the highlight of the night. WOW WOW WOW!! Never expected to see that today. Speechless.

Words cannot do this justice.

L.A. Goes Bonkers Over Breathtaking 'UFO' Lighting Up The Sky

Twittersverse explodes as SpaceX Falcon 9 puts on a gobsmacking light show.

By Mary Papenfuss

Angelenos thought the end was finally here when they looked up Friday evening to see something that appeared to be an iridescent alien ship exploding across the sky. "What the hell was that?" one panicked observer tweeted. "Wtf is flying through the sky in Hollywood? #aliens." "What is happening over Hollywood right now?"

“I was driving home heading west on the 10 Freeway and saw what looked like a burning comet flying southwards across the sky,” said Santa Monica resident Frances Tracy-Black. “It looked like a missile and then turned into a condom-shaped plume of smoke as it appeared to split in two.”

“Drivers all around me slowed to a crawl to watch it,” Tracy-Black added, “even though there was no traffic, and tons of cars started pulling over to get out to watch and film it. It was wild. I’ve never seen anything like it!”

- COMMENTS

- Adam Schroeder == I saw it while out doing deliveries in Mesa Arizona! It was such an odd and massive thing going across the sky! I was quite relieved that a mushroom cloud didn't follow what I was seeing. We just couldn't figure out what we were seeing. Thank you Elon and SpaceX for a most impressive show!
- Ronnie Corral · Anaheim, California == I was in Placentia standing outside in front of the Ralphs working for the Salvation Army, and I noticed it and a bunch of people going in and out of the store noticed it too. We discussed it, and asked "What the heck it was?" A military guy told me it was a rocket. One lady told her grandson it was Santa Claus. and a couple of people would like me, we thought it was a UFO.
- Harry Monk · Methodist University == It won't be long before those things stop hiding and land right in plain sight for everyone to see! Then there will be no guessing about if people are the only ones in the universe!
- Timothy O'Rear == I find it hard to imagine I've never seen an image like that in the sky, But it's a fairly common thing for these rockets to be taking off? Sounds like a cover story for a UFO sighting. I would think I'd have seen something in my lifetime that resembled that video clip.

Update for 1:35 p.m. PT Dec. 23: Here's a particularly nice video from SpaceX engineer Scott Gauer, posted on Facebook:

I left work a bit early to watch one of our rockets launch 10 satellites to space from Manhattan Beach! It launched in the dark but flew into sunlight which made an insanely beautiful display of the rocket exhaust against the dusk sky. The interaction of the first stage boostback burn plume with the second stage plume right after stage separation was so cool! Visible is: most of first stage flight, separation, second stage burn start + first stage flip, boostback burn, first stage attitude control thrusters firing, fairing thrusters firing, first stage entry burn and second stage cutoff. What a view! Thanks for the belated birthday present F9. Hauled out my trusty 714mm Apo telescope for this one.

RATIONAL EXPLANATION

<https://www.facebook.com/scott.gauer/videos/1884394984928249/>

- 1. The contrail is visible due to launch just after sunset. The rocket climbed into sunlight so the exhaust plume is visible. Same as jet contrails at sunset.
- 2. The puffy cotton ball in the middle of the contrail is where the first stage was dropped and the second stage ignited.
- 3. After separation the plume expands because the rocket has climbed high enough before staging that most of the dense atmosphere is now below the rocket. The rocket exhaust plume pressure is greater than the outside pressure and expands. It is not confined to a narrow line as it was in first stage flight where the lower altitude means the atmosphere is at higher pressure than the exhaust plume. Gas expansion is constrained. That's why sea level thrust and vacuum thrust force levels from the same rocket engine are different, improving with altitude.
- 4. Space X lands it's used first stage on drone ships in the ocean. The bright, spinning object pinwheeling within the plume is the spent first stage. Three things happen to it. First it's own forward momentum keeps it moving downrange like a tossed stone.
- [more]

Second, to land on the barge the stage must rotate 180° from nose first to engine first to do a deceleration burn with its engine to target the landing ship. The thruster system to make that rotation squirts gas. It starts then stops the rotation. These gas plume are also lit by sunlight and visible. The pinwheel shape is because the first stage is rotating. (Think about the arc a July 4th sparkler imprints on your eye when you wave it).

Third, and finally, the spinning is stopped, the first stage holds it's orientation and it gets brighter. It's new plume pointed to the lower left of the frame. This is the first stage landing target burn itself. It is longer duration and in a stable attitude. It does not generate a plume like the second stage departing to the left for two reasons. The first stage is now flying backwards engine first at this point though it's own plume disputing it's exhaust cloud. Plus the first stage is descending now into thicker atmosphere where the plume expansion is reduced by atmosphere pressure, previous discussion. You can see the first stage position move lower in the plume through the sequence as it begins it's descent.

5. The entire time the second stage continues it's climb to orbit as the tip of the plume making it longer toward upper left. The exhaust gas previously left behind keeps it's lateral velocity now in the vacuum of space so the plume bubble keeps getting wider too. (Newton's object in motion stays in motion....)

ANOTHER SIMILAR EXPLANATION

- Philip Dunne == The first illuminated plume was the whole vehicle (before 1st and 2nd stage separation), when it cut out and started again the lead plume was the second stage engine heading on into orbit, and the pulsing bit behind was the cold gas reaction control thrusters of the first stage after separation. The two small dots a little later were the "fairing" which is the two segments of the nose cone that breaks away from the top of the craft once it gets out of the atmosphere. They were emitting their own reaction control cold gas plumes because SpaceX is trying to get those back safely, because they cost a lot to make.

Explaining The Amazing Rocket Trail Over LA

Scott Manley

- Rocket watchers knew the Falcon 9 launch carrying Iridium 4 was going to be spectacular because the launch window was just after sunset. However it caught much of the general public by surprise and caused a bit of a sensation on social media. Let's talk about the science explaining the shape and behaviour of the launch using Doug Ellison's fantastic footage:
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CJ6nn8fZOmC&t=9s>

- barbara mecannic == It's a nice theory but I don't believe this is the answer. I live on the Florida coast and have my whole life, I've seen a lot of launches in my lifetime but these launches are different. Not once have I seen a glowing contrail at any time of day or night, but I've seen 6 since space x started launching off the coast. The glowing contrail can be seen hours after launch well into the night(no sunlight). When you do a side by side comparison to other rocket launches these seem to be very odd. Rocket launches typically launch towards the 2 o'clock off our coast, these launches fly parallel to the earth. The contrail usually looks like a rough cylindrical shape, these launches look like sperm. Too weird
- Jeffrey-scott Bates == Clearly something breaking through the firmament into the waters above. No other space launch has looked like this. What is the glowing orb after the penetration through the firmament? Why do the "thrusters" seem to be shut off for a second, then back on looking like a bullet traveling through water? People that don't see that this is NOT a space launch are sleeping hard.
- Dommerson Nev == That was Not a very infromitable explanation. I'm no conspirator, but I just can't trust that bloody accent. Especially when it started to fade off at the end. Also, the exhaust trail clearly started from the tip of the rocket. Since when does that occur rather than it coming from the tail like your daytime video properly portrayed? Another discrepancy between the two videos is the zig zagging contrail, which happens a lot sooner after take off in the day video. As it should. But what do I know. Probably just angle I'm at.
- Michael byrd == I never knew Rockets could release glowing plasma Trail? ... what types of gas glow FYI plasma-based
- David Cooper == That rocket trail or the rocket doesn't even go high enough but it does go horizontally for quite some time...
- David Cooper == Makes no sense to say the sun is only illuminating the rocket and not the sky itself or the background of the sky....when the sun is up the sky background is a lighter shade of blue...

[https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ryVIUDM_hTY]
BUT THERE WERE NUMEROUS UFO BELIEVERS, TOO

Shubham Raj == i have never seen a rocket leave a trail this way.

Paige Guedea == That is diffinatly not no fuc4ing rocket that people keeps sayibg rockets dont light up like that

DJ SAVAGE == Why is the rocket going right to left thought rockets go straight up into space doesnt look like went into space

Dennis C. == This is what happens more then a year ago and then they all tried to cover it op by not confirming this to us. They know that the UFO's are following them when they do these kind of launches. The illuminated clouds you see, are there so the ufo behind it can't control their ship. It probably came down somewhere as you can see that it was falling down from the skies.

Benn Essentials == The government is testing to see how many people they call fool the " live" feed you guys saw wasn't " live" i saw it to while also watching the actual sky it wasnt the same thing its sad to see how many people will automatically believe what they are told and fooled into believing

DEPRESSINGLY COMMON MISINFORMATION ON ROCKETS SHOWS OPPORTUNITY/NEED FOR BETTER PUBLIC OUTREACH

- DOUBTERS COMMONLY MISJUDGED DISTANCE SO ASSUMED IT WAS DANGEROUSLY OVER LAND, PARTICULARLY POPULATED AREAS
- SAME DISTANCE MISTAKE WHEN OTHER AIRCRAFT WERE SEEN, TO ASSUME THEY WERE THERE TO CHASE THE OBJECT
- WITNESSES FREQUENTLY REPORTED OBJECT WENT 'RIGHT OVERHEAD' [NO LOCATION ACTUALLY HAD AN ELEVATION ANGLE ABOVE 30 DEGREES]
- FREQUENT MISPERCEPTION OF MOTION AS "TOO SLOW" FOR A ROCKET, AND EITHER STOPPING OR ZIG-ZAGGING
- A FEW COMPLAINTS OF NO NOISE LIKE A ROCKET SHOULD MAKE, OR NO SONIC BOOM – OTHERS WERE SURE NIGHT LAUNCHES WERE RARE

UNDERSTANDING THESE SUBCONSCIOUS CULTURAL BIASES IS CRUCIAL FOR EFFECTIVE ANALYTICAL EXPLOITATION OF FUTURE WITNESS REPORTS

- “PEOPLE SEE WHAT THEY EXPECT TO SEE” MEANS THEY OFTEN WILL NOT NOTICE OR REMEMBER POSSIBLY CRITICAL DETAILS OF AN OBSERVED SPACEFLIGHT EVENT, NOMINAL OR ANOMALOUS
- AFTER SUFFICIENT RETELLINGS OF THE EXPERIENCE THEY CAN ‘EDIT IN’ DETAILS FROM THE ‘REMINDED-OF’ ANALOGIES USED IN THEIR NARRATIVES
- RECOLLECTIONS OF CLOCK TIME AND EVENT DURATION CAN SHOW MAJOR ERRORS
- ANY ESTIMATE OF SIZE AND DISTANCE CAN BE DISMISSED AS ASSUMPTION-DRIVEN
- EVEN DESCRIPTIONS OF SKY-RELATIVE MOVEMENTS SHOW FREQUENT RANDOM JITTER
- FUNDAMENTAL DATA NEEDED TO MAKE REPORTS USEFUL – SUCH AS OBSERVER LOCATION, LINE-OF-SIGHT AZIMUTH AND ELEVATION, OBJECT ANGULAR SIZE – ARE EXTREMELY RARE
- FOLLOWUP REQUESTS FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ARE SUCCESSFUL ONLY OCCASIONALLY
- EXTRARDINARY INTERPRETATIONS OF SUCH APPARITIONS FREQUENTLY GIVE THE WITNESS PERSONAL PRIDE AT POSSESSING SECRET KNOWLEDGE, AND STATUS IN INTERNET SUBCULTURES

WHY IS BETTER OBSERVATIONAL DATA IMPORTANT??

- SERENDIPITOUS TWILIGHT OBSERVATIONS OF MISSILE AND SPACEFLIGHT EVENTS WILL INCREASE, AGAIN CATCHING MANY OBSERVERS BY SURPRISE
- SOME WILL BE SCHEDULED, ACKNOWLEDGED MISSIONS, BUT THE MOST INTERESTING MAY NOT BE, AND SUCH ACCIDENTAL OBSERVATIONS MAY BE ALL THE INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC
- THE SAME SITUATION APPLIES TO MISSION ANOMALIES ON SECRETIVE PROGRAMS SUCH AS THOSE OF RUSSIA, CHINA, US-DoD, SPACE-X, BLUE ORIGIN, AND OTHERS
- TO FACILITATE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CAUSE OF SUCH OBSERVATIONS BY INDEPENDENT SPECIALISTS, RAPID AND THOROUGH PARAMETERS OF EACH SIGHTING SHOULD BE GATHERED, DOCUMENTED, AND DISSEMINATED AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE
- TO DATE, THIS PROCESS, WHILE OFTEN VISUALLY AWESOME AND RANDOMLY INFORMATIVE, HAS BEEN ERRATIC, SPOTTY, USUALLY SLOPPY, OFTEN ERROR-FILLED, AND GENERALLY INADEQUATE TO PROVIDE INDEPENDENT EXPERTS THE INFORMATION NEEDED TO PERSUASIVELY CHARACTERIZE EVENTS WHOSE OPERATORS DESIRE TO BE CONCEALED FROM THE GENERAL PUBLIC
- THE RESULTING AMBIGUITY AND UNCERTAINTY ABOUT SUCH EVENTS HAS ALLOWED THE INTERNET INDUSTRIALIZATION OF BIZARRE, ANTI-SCIENTIFIC, AND CULTURALLY TOXIC CONSPIRACY THEORIES WHICH TAKE ROOT AND THRIVE, ESPECIALLY IN THE MINDS OF MANY YOUNG SPACEFLIGHT-MINDED PEOPLE AROUND THE WORLD

ELEMENT OF INTENTIONAL SLANTING/FABRICATION

- Carl Kocinski == If this is a rocket which its clearly not! WHY IS THERE NO FUC4ING SOUND? Project bluebeam I reckon.
- Terry Donaldson == I live in arizona an i saw this weird lite at frist i thought it was a light in the parking lot then on the other side i saw another lite that looked to be the same kind of lite but shining through clouds they didnt appear to be moving real fast. It didnt look like any airplanes or choppers. Just lites fanned out like spray coming out. With another lite in center closer to the one to the south. I guess i never heard of spacex rocket it didnt look anything like a rocket what ever it was it was at least 4 lites kind of in a row an no noise.
- JOEY == My dogs were actually barking at the sky and i looked up to see this phenomena, most dogs in my neighborhood were howling too. I found it strange and creepy. This is not a space x satellite or else they would have announced it a week before.

- Gunnz Akimbo = looks to me plasma weaponry testing.
- Angie B == How do u explain the colors changing if its a rocket. It was morphing in another vid i just saw !!!!
- THAT IS IMPOSSIBLE == you can see it morphing on this one too but what bugs me are the distinct lights around the supposed "rocket"

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WAm8ztJsodE>

Timothy Okeefe == First off rockets dont travel horizontal they go straight up to leave the atmosphere....Ive watched over thirty videos from different angles already...No of which go straight up....Another thing is Rockets dont leave behing clouds of gas that give us crazy light that is brighter than even the moon...And also...Eye witnesses say that the lights have rainbow colors.....And lastly....At the point when the rocket would have dumped its baggage to ascend higher into space it would have been accelerating extremely fast at that point....But the distance between the two lights doesnt seem to seperate at a fast rate even though one should be falling while the other keeps climbing...Not to mention the beams of light omiting from the bright orb in the front.....Ive seen better close up videos that show 5 beams of light that illuminate the entire sky for hundreds of miles....No rocket can do that..

Elite Ferret == I don't know why "space X" would be sending a rocket up just to see how far horizontally it could fly. If it's purpose is to go to space why wouldn't it fly as vertically as possible?

Tyler Fernandes == Timothy Okeefe do some research into spaceX first its going horizontal because they're testing commercial rockets that can go from china to LA in like 30 minutes that will replace airplanes thats why its going horizontal they're not trying to go to space rbxlife_girls pie == This is not a rocket becuz if it was it wouldnt do that and it not a satellite becuz it will go sideways but a ufo like it bounce over AND over the place and that not a rocket or satellite it a ufo which is very scary for me becuz this might be a alien invasion or it could be world war between trump and umm the guy form other country but right now i think it a ufo

isz glo == They really think we stupid SMH sayin it a rocket or whatever its not

- Mathew Marriott == yea i cant wrap my head around a rational. watching how the second light pulsed didn't seam natural and defiantly didn't seem like a rocket (at least not a successful launch)
- Jorge Solis == Mathew Marriott it's crazy man there was something similar to this like a year ago you can look it up , and the smoke light up the area around it almost as if it had an aura , I was thinking it was a wormhole these things came out of idk at the end of the day ,but fursure non human
- Trizzyboi123 == Chandler, az. saw that $hit go down blew a fuse in the house went outside and boom there it was looked like a blimp at first upclose or something? $hit was scary and im a full grown man.

- Daniel Martinez == It wasn't a rocket it stopped and a rocket can't stop it moved like a jelly fish -- look think about it why would a rocket stop it's illogical
- Eddie Villagran == we saw it to , it was so amazing , the second beam following the first one was wierd , #amazing
- Paul Bentrode == That's no rocket. they are liars. We are about to get hit by major catastrophes
- Norma Rae == I'm wondering why if these really are simply launches, why haven't the majority of the people seen them? I've lived in Southern CA my whole life and had never seen it before until today. My brother witnessed one for his first time in 2015. If they've always looked this way, then it wouldn't be such a phenomena.

Revisit to Nov 7, 2015 event

- FearlessFoxX == I don't know about it being a Missile, Becuase it passed over here in Fresno California and that night there was so many helicopters in the sky and police and my girlfriend said she was laying down and she felt a slight shake and noise, and it made her think becuase the neighborhood is always quiet , so she went outside and looked up and what she saw... Was quite crazy She reported seeing a pitch black dark octogan shaped object flying in the sky very low, infact so low she said she thought it was literally gona hit the tree, and even more crazy she said there was a couple helicopters chasing it and apparently the helicopters lights were off but you can hear them in the sky! But yeah if you want more info on this hmu on Twitter @fearllessforce I remember hearing so many helicopters flying around that night
- Hey man I just saw videos right this second that I guess the supposedly missile was launched again just tonight in La look it up! Watching it and knowing what we're capable of I just don't think it's a fuc4ing missile either! I think that your girlfriend's right and it's scaring the $hit out of me because the government is slowly leaving bread crumbs of information about aliens actually being real and I feel like the $hit's going to hit the fan and they have no choice but to disclose! And this is just another example of more activity than normal happening to the extreme! What are your thoughts? Did you guys see it tonight?
- FearlessFoxX == I seen a slight glimpse of it on social media, but haven't seen anything here in Fresno not sure if it's gona pass threw here again but if it does ima be on the look out, And yes my gf saw that and she posted about it as well, I'm not sure why they're doing this so called missile luanch or if it is a missile but apparently there's ufo activity around this thing it could be a ufo cover up, or could be a ufo trying to deactivate a missile there's been proof of this before too, either way it's sketchy asf and I'm not to trustworthy of the goverments input about this

- Desert Lotus == It was all over California, I don't understand if its a rocket, how can we all see it over California and Arizona? Why wasn't this announced that it was going to take place today? We really need to use our logic discernment.
- S A M == Desert Lotus I honestly think it's interdimensional beings, it's possible to travel via consciousness and materialize as a light. (Check out unacknowledged & dr Steven greers disclosure project.). I heard the gov tired to take ownership of what it was but I think that's a cover up.... I genuinely don't think "aliens" want to harm us. We're like monkeys to them, but still part of the same "whole". If anything we are more of a threat to ourselves... Ever since soft disclosure has been happening, more and more lights like this are in the skies.

- Oscar Jimenez [cherry bobs kitchen in Green Valley Arizona]
- Ok world it's funny how The government is always Trying to find ways to control everything when the world isn't theirs so what if it is a UFO Then let it be we cannot justify Anything that flies in our skies and when I say our skies I mean our skies as in the Earth itself the people of Earth itself why is it that there's ways for somebody to be in control of something when before time there was no control yes there were leaders but the government aren't leaders Now me myself I cannot prove what I saw in the sky was a UFO or was a rocket but I can tell you one thing If I saw a bright light in the sky like that I wouldn't be trying to mistake that for a rocket And for the government to try to make the world believe that was a rocket is pretty sad when they think that scientists are the only smart people in the world We were given eyes for a reason we were given lips in a Tongue for a reason And we were given a brain for a reason.... when I witnessed this thing in the sky I instantly said this is definitely a unidentified flying object Now I know I am no genius but definitely smarter than to believe what the government has been trying to cover up for years

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wX7hOJsd29I>

- Brianna Casillas == It is space x launch
- Laura White == Brianna Casillas I don't agree I'm sorry I personally saw this while I was driving. And it was really zig zagging. I just watch space launch rocket videos! And all of them go straight the fuc4 up!! This one I saw stalled in the air then split into two! Wtf
- Kevin Hernandez == Patrice Wilson nigga do u fuc4in think a rocket ship makes lights like that umm I think the fuc4 not soo idk what the hell u have going through your mind
- -----

Chuck Bear == I'm kind of curious why the rocket was sent up at such an angle. I would think it would be more efficient to send the rocket straight up and then do additional maneuvers after reaching space to deploy the satellites to their desired locations. Just curious.

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LBipoRvap7I>
- Jay C == How is it a rocket when it was floating in the same position for like 5 minutes before it started moving to the left. it didn't go straight up it went from right to left and then there was helicopters following it.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NASQhpybAvM>

- Alexis M == They said it was a rocket. I don't know how a rocket could make those lights though. Is it because it went ultra sonic?
- Ignorance is a disease commonsense is cure == This is what you call a hologram! Getting ready everyone the 2nd coming is upon us & it's going to be a big show! Disney bought Fox news so we know who's going to use broadcasting during the greatest movie if all time. "God returns" Anybody notice the clouds are odd. - Elizabeth Bergman == Too far west from my 20 to be Vandenberg... I was thinking out of Edwards going north to south.. Vb is west of us and this object clearly was on our 2 o'clock then noon on out to the south facing due west. I doubt the space x story. Nice footage.
- Susie Lynds == I just saw a similar light in the sky in Turlock CA around 5:30pm. It looked like it was going to turn into a portal, but then it fizzled out. I pulled over in my car and watched the afterglow for about twenty minutes. It was a dark, circular cloud surrounded by glow, but it dissappated.

- Charlie Ray == I work on VAFB and that was a view of a lifetime. Weather conditions and lighting from sun was perfect. Truly amazing. You have the best capture yet and as you know it still didn't compare to view in person.
- David Dowling == Charlie Ray a commentary of the multiple actions would put this over the top, otherwise an amazing video. living in cocoa beach we witness all the launches of not only Space x vehicles but atlas and Delta and nothing compares to this with regard to the incredible light show

- Also important to note, after the 2nd stage ignition, we got to see a very turbulent trail, this was because of the 1st stage boostback burn colliding with the 2nd stage burn.
- Black Death 1347 [<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4TxS5l0hX-Y>]
- I saw it too, from Glendale, California. The light on the left kept moving pretty fast, with a cone-shaped trail behind it. But the light following it was much slower, almost stationary, and seemed to be shining its light downward, at a slight angle. They left a big, glowing, dragon-shaped trail that resembled smoke in their wake.
- Uber Driver Now [https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=USltJ_lmvNQ]
- Saw this today while picking up a passenger. There were two objects, the smaller one of which seemed to eject out of the bigger object and go in another direction. While the bigger object had a bright spotlight spreading in a 90-100 degree angle. The white gas light substance was the trail left behind, just glowing the night sky.

- BeHisLikeness == Helicopter with a search light... give me a break... you can hear the helicopter
- Leopard Woman == Some are saying it is a SpaceX launch for a satellite, it definitely doesn't look like rocket launches of the past from NASA or the military.
- believe it== I'd be very concerned about that trailing mist it is dispersing, IMO. It probably matters little though, as I am sure we are all already infected with whatever they wanted us infected with, to be activated by a certain frequency whenever they choose.
- IER VIBEZ == i seen it here . now wasnt a rocket.. we all seen this before . seen from arizona to california. definatly not a rocket.. no noise at all.. but very weird .
- Hollis Holt == Does anyone really believe that Space X tested a rocket and shot it directly over two of the most populated cities in the Western US? Coz I sure AF do not!
- blondboybc == That tail is FAR to large to be any rocket and far TOO bright. The light is extraordinary. UFO?
- Karen Dixon == The wide area of light being released like some kind of bright flashlight capsule is cloaking something in the night sky they do not want us to see...because it would be obvious it isn't the moon
- Siri Bane Faouz == Strange.. A "space" rocket shooting straight over the city.. Some what a "space" rocket... Ain't no space rocket at all.. If it was it would have been shot straight up and not over the city..

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wGplhs6ik_M

- Rhythmologist == Yeah, it was something. I got alerted to it by two UPS guys delivering packages on my street. I get a knock at the door and see two UPS guys. I first thought they were dropping off a package. Instead, the one guy says, "This may sound weird but do you know what's happening in the sky right now?" I was like, "No, what's up?" I walked out into the street with them and watched the tail end of it. I talked to them for a few minutes. I guess they were out there in the street and they watched the whole thing from the beginning. They were so freaked out they had to go tell someone. For some reason they picked my door to knock on. Lol, It was a very strange situation for many reasons. The one UPS guy recorded it on his phone so I got to see his footage from the start of the event to the point where I got to witness it for myself. It was crazy how long the smoke, or whatever it was persisted in the sky afterwards. I don't buy the cover story at all. There's more to it than just a "rocket launch". I'm not sure what exactly but something isn't right.
- Thomas Jager == sumerbc maybe you should watch a space rocket launch before looking stupid... Rockets are launched straight up in the sky they do not fly horizontal.
- Ms Tina == What kind of space rocket is that, that thing was traveling way too slow and not in a proper position to go upward sideways maybe 🤔 I live in southeastern VA and they have a rocket launching pad over on the eastern shore. I have seen 3 so far when I go to the beach and I have never seen a rocket go sideways like that

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wGplhs6ik_M

- Loretta Player == Okay I just did a search and I found the same type of light that you just saw and I saw an orb like controlling it, so I do believe that our government or military are using these back engineered saucers to control our weather or what not. Just trying to scare. Is that an orb if it is then that's what's controlling the light.
- Kirk March == This video is BS! It had 3 UFOs 2 of them were brightly lit up blue color. flew level parallel to horizon about 4 minutes. One looked to be in tow of the lead craft. The one being towed had energy [o]r shock waves coming from all sides and began slowing down and red and orange sparks fell off it but it didn't leave any trail in sky. It fluttered and seemed to hover for a minute then changed direction due west from camp Pendelton . It went into a power dive and it's 2 blue motors became visible. It disappeared over horizon 1 minute later going very slow imprecise to first UFO that towed the other. 1st UFO as soon as the tow distance grew between the two it punched it had 2 blue engines lights in back and left a massive trail in sky. 1st ufo went super sonic up up and gone half way across horizons in 15 seconds. 3rd UFO no lit up just hovered through whole event never moved lost site of it when it got darker. The towed UFO looked damaged with sparks flying off it could have been shot down

Kirk March on <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6mPCb0mTHLA&t=481s>

Dec 22, 2017.... the official narrative was Space X9 launch.

There is a dark Brown UFO in the frame located upper right corner. UFO looks like 5 individual vehicles or 1 large vehicle with 5 compartments.

The So called space X9's vehicles heading due south decending to level flight 10,000 to 20,000 feet west of Camp Pendelton. The color of the motors was blue 2 each total of 4. The rocket launches I have seen before had redish plumes with exhaust trails behind the motor. These 2 X9 vehicles had 0 exhaust emission and no plume, the engines were 2 neon blue circles rear of ships.

The trail left in sky emanated from lead ship as a shockwave looking like a shield around a 2nd vehicle in tow. The 2nd vehicle the so called 1st stage of Space X9 kept pace with lead ship for about 2 minutes after the still picture. When numerous at least 5 white shockwaves blasted from the 2nd vehicle from all directions; the 2nd vehicle began dripping orange and red sparks and began to flutter slowing down to near hover at which point it changed its direction to due west went into power dive accelerated slowly over horizon.

The lead ship distance of separation increased barely during the 2nd ship flutter, but when the red and orange sparks began appearing 1st ship nosed up 45 degrees and punched it disappearing in 10 seconds up up and up no further trail left in sky. All the while 3rd ship dark brow never moves, other witnesses around said they saw flashes of light from the 3rd ship, I did not see these flashes.

However it did appear to me the second ship was taking fire and may have been under attack. Taking evasive maneuvers going into power dive to get away.

- Steve Frahm · 0:05 It's not a rocket and space x usually doesn't do evening launches ... It's the same as Florida and Norway event , space x isnt in all those locations... don't realize they are doing things we don't know about and telling u whatever they want u to hear ...
- Ansleigh Bell · 0:18 Space X claims they launched it yet they never announced it? Hmm. WAKE UP YOU GUYS WE ARENT THE ONLY LIVING SPECIES OUT OF ALL THESE PLANETS!!
- enry Hughes Jr. · 18:32 What rocket have you ever seen that is launched like this? I'm military and this is not our technology.

Sighting in Arizona sky part 2

- Kristil Knox · 0:00 Bradly David Anderson Okay there have been other launches but are we going to act like it's normal for it to look like that? Did the other launches look like that? I'm genuinely asking since all of you are rocket scientists who are trying to make her feel stupid just because she doesn't believe everything she's told like the rest of you
- Bosilovick Sean · 0:44 They can call that thing whatever they want. There was NO announcement of a launching. This is very suspicious. Cover up.....
- Jenny Pantoja · 23:44 This is no rocket it came out of the sky not from the ground I love how stupid they always make us sound when we say it's a UFO of course the government always has to cover it up
- Johnny Cota · 23:21 That ain't no rocket launch the media is always trying to cover up unexplainable phenomena. How do you explain that light that's going in circles?
- Tom Christopher · 1:30:52 Did they launch in 1996 when I first saw this? Did they launch from Russia and China too where these sightings have occurred throughout the last decade? You doubters are the foolish... wake up and smell the deceit. LOL

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WWSEmHm27ac>

- Darryl Curtis == Totally crazy. Travelling between space and time in plain view. So much energy and power is both exhilarating and concerning. The light from the black is so bright. Wow
- Francisco Banuelos == I've seen this light in the hills of Fontana ca not as crazy but the same thing I've saw 3 one was in the sky not moving then 2 came from no were then all 3 took of different directions no one believed me
- Tina Nicolia == I looked and I think it was a UFO trapped in the vortex of the rocket. I hope it got freed, eventually. I felt anxiety looking at that " object " not being able to free itself from the vortex. Bad timing ? How was it not aware of the launch about to occur ? many UFO's are not visible to the human eye unless in distress. This one would have been in distress.....losing its cloaking.....
- KID AMERICAN == There looking for some thing I can tell and Mabey those are chemicals in air our tech is not that advanced to do that and the power of that light source must be incredible and they must be running on a infant fuel or some kind of battery I love ittt  it looks like the first one was left of a few seconds after the other since if u look at the smoke it looks like they where connected
- Benjie Sida == If you take away all the jackass remarks and read the ones that have logic, it makes an interesting topic. One thing that baffles me about this rocket theory is, how do you explain the fact that thousands of Arizonans (self included here in Tucson) witnessed a bright light which I can only describe as a meteorite lighting up the dark sky going from EAST TO WEST around 9:50pm MST? On a side note, that very same day hours earlier here in Tucson, 3 unexplainable bright lights were observed by thousands and caught on video throughtout the Tuscon metro area. A couple days prior a World View Stratolite high-altitude helium weather ballon pops at Tucson Spaceport coincidently next to Tucson International Airport and Ratheon. In my opinion, far too many coincidences. And what is up with the chem trails???

More <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WWSEmHm27ac>

- Tvette Saints == Okay looks like everybody just witnessed a craft going down or having problems obviously. And the equivalency of a a tow truck or in this case tow ship.
- AMARAYAH == You can believe the news if you want too! That's like M.I.B putting the flashy thing in your face, flashing it, then telling you whatever to keep you thinking whatever they want.
- The Paint On Don == Best footage that I've saw. You know that the space race is getting bigger when they can make "rockets" stand still mid air
- GameLore == "It was a rocket" never seen a rocket look like a lightbulb mid air.
- A A == Why would a space x missile launch be followed by a bright orb, something is amiss. It wouldn't be the first time that something was launched by the u.s. was tracked, then destroyed, something always seems to know ahead of time if it is going to be used for nefarious purposes.
- Lucas Lorenzo == After that a Smooth atomic boom lunch it to space. I was walking my dog and the night became day for those 4 minutes. Very bright , scared the $hit out of me and my dogs.
- Queen LiLi == If it's a rocket it should have went straight up not turn into different shapes , sizes, and colors . Those things are fast it's something more out of this earth . Don't let the news fool you. They just don't want the world to panic !
- Fiv Guuv == Now that this channel has covered this, a person can't take this event seriously anymore. This is no rocket, it is clearly not a rocket the only people who would believe so are those with high faith in their government.
- on key == WTF is with all you sheeplemming twits quoting the evening news??
- Anna barber == I kept quiet to long. Did anyone see that second light trailing behind.? Of course! But, did you see what it did? It made a hard left turn and traveled away before it disappears. Has anyone wondered why it never went to space? It sure didn't go to space. Watch it again. It travels south....not to space.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WWSEmHm27ac>

- Beach Bum == U know nasa is saying it's space x but really it's not because they don't want anyone knowing and freaking out
- Eddie Fuentes == This was also seen in El Paso, Tx.
- Last St.Music == The second light ball from the main lead one was also shooting out light, like, bursts of energy, i dont see on your vid but i have im other vid,
- Fresno State Hooper == I watch the news and I believe them, haha typical mush brain response...
- David Schwartz == Where have you been since 2009 when major media outlets have reported this same event over Russia, China, Australia, Norway, California, and Florida.
- Master Plumbing == I witnessed the whole thing from San Diego and saw something being pulled from behind. As I watched, you could see the rear object spinning and casting something out into the atmosphere. Luckily the wind was blowing out towards the ocean and not inland.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WWSEmHm27ac>

- BLUE YETI == So how do we know this object wasn't coming into our orbit and the GOV knew and decided to use space x as a solution to trick us in believing it was a launch. Who are you people up here to try to force us to believe what you believe. Something come into orbit that doesn't seem right also they got there story together and there plot kind of work but see they have there helpers up here in the comments trying to force us to believe these rockets but for some reason out of my 42 years of being here I've seen rocket launches and none look as this thing did. The way the other orbit floated which is normal but it actually moved. Something is really going on. Now they on the news talking about this all day .I mean cant you people even feel that something is off? Its like everything we once known has vanish and theres something wicked here controlling us and something fighting to release us free. The signs in the sky hasn't ever been so godly to my eyes, the things I've seen in this two year period alone awoke we so you cant just force your its a rocket because hey maybe it is or maybe its something to distract or hide something that they knew was coming. I mean right in the place where the fires are happening. Maybe a big earthquake is coming I don't know but I tell you something is to come soon. Theres no hiding it, only a retard and sinner will keep saying everything is normal because they fear whats to come of there wicked sins. Every knee shall bow and your sins will be judge sinners. As a man I never seen so many cowards as I do now.I mean you go outside look in skies for a couple minutes then boom theres something strange flying down from the heavens and now it happens every minute. No man is safe, you cant run or hide you sinners will all be judge.
- Pacman416 == maybe because there are videos and a livestream and thousands of people watching the launch live.

- Sina Sina · 1:00:55 Thats not a rocket ship please stop lying to the human race and for once tell the truth we deserve to know whats going on
- Taco Vato == Interesting. I have the exact same footage but - shot over Los Angeles and it was directly above. I have the same sequence that you do yet your in Arizona..... it was in the western portion of the sky yet you are to the south and east. Interesting. My perspective looks almost identical to yours
- Carol Wilson · 1:09:16 Don't believe it for a minute. Stationed at Vandenberg AFB for many years. Rockets go straight up until out of sight.
- Sara Shepherd == How is this EXACT object being seen in LA at the same time JUST as clear??? I watched a plane fly through the smoke trail in LA. Planes in LA can't be seen in AZ... had to be 2 different ones.,... You can't make me believe those in LA and Phoenix saw the SAME "Rocket". If it WAS a Rocket, it had to be 2 different ones launched simultaneously.... I'm awake. It's not always a fun place. It's frustrating.
- SunderlandJohn MackemExCon == Believe what you saw with your own eyes and not what other people are telling you it certainly is. There is more to this event than what they are telling us and i don't believe NASA splinter group spaceX they lie to us all the time.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qt2a9iHsjAY>

- ina Carson == They not going to tell us the truth. When have they ever told us about things going on? This could be a silent war without the media? UFOs?? That's a laugh..Imao! Marines ready up in the Netherlands, and we have 3 against 1? Didn't come to the world for somebody else greed. Russia, China, North Korea, and America....Prayers people. Well did read the article about American marines up in Netherlands. Well they let that article out, and seeing this...puzzle pieces fits. Just spend much time with family, and friends. I don't trust none of them. Call me crazy if you want too. When have we ever been told the truth about flying things in the sky? When have we ever been told the truth about wars in the past? All confidential stuff? They called me stupid, and dumb in school when I knew the teacher's we're lying, then I get sent to a corner for telling the truth, and calling out a lie, while the rest of the class laughed. So my truths was supposedly make me stupid, and dumb now? Not in this lifetime. They'd always played us like a old banjo

- Nancy Schmerl == It definitely was not a rocket. Vandenberg said they had nothing in the sky. I had friends videotaping all the way from Northridge to San Pedro and it just stayed in one spot for a long time, and then actually one part came backwards. Explain that
- Loretta Player == that is something that the military is putting on to try and scare people, you see the little orb that flies around will that is a back engineered saucer and there is a military man inside controlling this thing. they control the weather you'll see those near volcanoes when they go off you'll see those when you see a huge Sandstorm in the desert they're controlling everything trying to make us think it's the end of the world and maybe it is but I would rather see it done naturally wouldn't you?
- Dynasty == SpaceX launch at that time??? It looks like it's in the evening, aren't commercial planes still flying in the area at that time still??? Come on get real
- MrL TLB == Bro from L.A. From what the info i got i seem to understand that you guys were way closer then any other place, please keep you video in some kind of usb or device that does not connect to a computer. This is definitely the best recorded evidence of something very special in our time There's no Rocket to date that actually does that, and even if it was they dont glow like that. I got some videos but none as good as yours. Times are changing and things are getting crazy lol

- eshar Rai == This is a spiral there's small ones and big ones I see these things most of the time and I call it more then a spiral I call it a drill
- Harold Kline == Amazing footage! Fantastic and unbelievable! It's like their ships "exhaust" is interacting with the rockets exhaust, almost like it's their ships E.M. signature. Awesome video!
- Steven Mccrae === ...Surely this can't be passed off as a failed missile ? And what was that a light that went up and into the main light at the end and flew away ?
- siem == Rocket seems unlikely..... who has ever seen a jet engine, or any other engine show something spectacular as this?! Also, even if it is a rocket, that nasty $hit will fall down and will be inhaled by people of all ages.
- venomblader == Bull$hit, you guys are stupid if you believe what they tell you. 500 miles? This is clearly testing of blue beam project and what chemtrails are for and you can expect further tests before the elite ruling this world will fake ufo invasion and reduce people population to 5 mln. This is the only real hologram technology that we have thats why its visible from so far. Thank you and you should think of saving your families.
- Debra J. Cherif == Are we supposed to now think this is normal ?
- senji benson == It's a portal it's disguised as a Earthly aircraft projectile but when it gets to a certain altitude it opens up a portal and that's what that residue was coming off his energy from another dimension opening up a wormhole
- Sty Strapped == It was right above me it had geen mist
- Lenny Online == I saw it over the Los Angeles skies too. I don't believe it is a Space X launch from Santa Barbara, California. It looks nothing like a rocket launch. It spawned a big orb. I think the government is covering up to quell public anxiety. There are reports that people from as far away as New York have observed it, so that was no local launch. It is massive and far away.

- worken360 == Space x my ass! If you believe that is space x your really brainwashed and really stupid.
- Raycharles 52 == What's crazy is this happened by my house and the news said it was a once in a lifetime atmospheric anomaly and nothing about a rocket
- Marie Stults == So its kinda funny that they can just shoot a rocket off in to an open flight zone! With no warning to the citizens but most importantly no warning to aircraft flying in the area? O and rocket boosters free to fall in to neighborhoods? I Dont think so!
- mick beard == anybody that thinks this sp.falcon 9 is nuts.any manmade rocket sent at that trajectory would have been aborted, its called propagation. folk wont see whats right under there noses.
- indvoltage == They have removed common sense entirely from the USA !. An amazing feat indeed! How in gods name do you think rocket fuel can expand to that degree while the "boosters" linger in the atmosphere for 5 mins. Why has no other nation taken advantage of the sheer stupidity of the American nation and over taken them,,,, Oh wait they have. hahaha. stupid westerners.
- Terry Barnes == This is exactly what I videotaped over the Arizona sky last month or this month they say it was a rocket blast but I wonder why it stayed illuminating on the far side for so long after the rocket gone by never seen anything like it
- Alonzo Ortega == It looks like it was a portal that was opened on a rocket. It looks like light matter from another dimensions or something
- J Luforge == This is not a space X rocket..! Their was a very identical phenomenon in Russia a few days ago on the 27th December.. Fake news from the media again.
- Rontek Junior == That is not from a rocket no fu44in way guys....Why did Mr Elon Musk not inform all of us about this launch. ...I mean how dare they not tell us...all my friends would've loved to see something like that but its BS if im goin to believe anything NASA says as they fuc4in lie. Fact!

- MegaTamarra -- missiles and rockets have headlights?
- Umar Alnawas --== They said it is a racket but it look like Light beam
- Changed My Name == lake havasu city az here and i was driving right beside it or under it. it was definitely going east to west.
- James K == What's also very obvious is that it's not ascending as would a rocket. This is some no gov't can explain. Yet, they will cover it up with some seemingly plausible explanation. ... Not a rocket or missile. It's moving far to slow for it to be one of those. Looks almost exactly the same as the incident over Norway a year or two ago.
- Bradley Leyrer == How is it sitting still???
- Doug Pierson == This looks like a test of a new type of drive engine. If you noticed the object behind the rocket head in the focus of the parabola, was generating either a spiral or concentric circles (like smoke rings) while rotating. There are np known drives with these characteristics. Also notice that once the Falcon 9 reached its flight slitude, the "fuel" burn pattern drastically changes to shape previously unknown, a parabolic envelope. Could thid br a new portal style dtive?
- GM Skywatcher == We cannot believe the nonsense we are told on a daily basis the criminals that own us keep technologies and or everything else from our knowledge wake up people launches do not look like this and perhaps those so-called boosters came ripping through the roofs of people's homes
- Tito Cruz == In my 40 plus years observating many rockets launch into space this is the first time ive never seen a rocket fly into space sideways,or horizontal last I checked space is up.not the side. Hmmm?
- MeBituman == There is no fuc4ing way this is a rocket launch, it would have been out of sight in seconds.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a3_4Bc6tRp4

- eugene van dyne == ok am I the only one that notice what look like another aircraft come in to the picture and hover then move up and then South to north
- dave brown == why does the smoke stay illuminated?
- James Wright == If it's a missile to space why no Sonic boom leaving atmosphere
- Mr. ClassicK == so are we really going to act like we don't see the other UFO tagging along side this.... in the beginning you can clearly see the ora admitting from around both objects..... this is truly remarkable footage, classic history even....
- m k == we not fools, that thing not from this plant so yall morda fuc4as should stop trying to play with our brain.

Strange light in the sky over LA

- Rob Sanchez == wtf kind of rocket flies sideways retard
- Layla Avila == This is not no rocket or anything this is either the government or ufo
- Deja Leroy == That's no missile, or rocket whatever the media is telling you is a lie. they don't want you to actually realize what it is. that light or ray or whatever it is is WAY too beautiful to be man made. it appeared so quick that while people are recording and seeing this and its getting spread all over social media, they don't have enough time to edit or Photoshop the photos because too many people witnessed it already with their own eyes so now while your attention is diverted to this light in the sky, their coming up with some wierd story to sell to you guys.. Saying it's a rocket. compare the two pics of a rocket taking off and flying through the sky to this video. it doesn't even make sense nor do the two things look similar to each other. don't be gullible. open your eyes and open that bible . revelations are coming true. That's that pale horse coming down, that carriage
- Mitchell Hernandez == Rockets do not move slow....not like this....watch rocket launches and compare...

Explaining The Amazing Rocket Trail Over LA

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CJ6nn8fZOmc> // 175,238 views

- Tom McDonough == Nonsense! Who do you think you're talking to, a class of 5th graders? It created a rift in time-space, a mini, Einstein Rosen bridge, so to speak. There are much higher quality videos available on YT. Those were arrayed plasma pulses, not exhaust from some make believe thruster for crying out loud.
- barbara meccanic == It's a nice theory but I don't believe this is the answer. I live on the Florida coast and have my whole life, I've seen a lot of launches in my lifetime but these launches are different. Not once have I seen a glowing contrail at any time of day or night, but I've seen 6 since space x started launching off the coast. The glowing contrail can be seen hours after launch well into the night (no sunlight). When you do a side by side comparison to other rocket launches these seem to be very odd. Rocket launches typically launch towards the 2 o'clock off our coast, these launches fly parallel to the earth. The contrail usually looks like a rough cylindrical shape, these launches look like sperm. Too weird
- The term you are looking for is known as "Twilight Phenomena." Learn more here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Twilight_phenomena

MORE <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CJ6nn8fZOmc>

- Karl Storie == Re: kerosene and oxygen yielding carbon dioxide and water. Yeah, if the mixture was stoichiometric, that's all you'd get. All kerosene rockets, however, burn the maximum specific impulse mixture, which is 25% rich. That means a fifth of the fuel finds no oxygen to combine with and its hydrogen and carbon are split up by the heat. The hydrogen is of course invisible, but the carbon forms microscopic, white-hot particles of soot. That's what you're seeing as a bright yellow plume. Any time you see a visible exhaust plume from a liquid-fuel rocket, that's what it is--leftover carbon. This is what the hoaxtards are complaining about not seeing in the Lunar Module's exhaust, because yellow kerosene flames confined to a narrow column by a thick atmosphere would look totally realistic. /s So the soot from the Falcon's exhaust, if caught by the sun, would probably be most of what you're seeing there even though it's a minority constituent.
- Anton Szautner == Scott - the 'break' in the contrail isn't the consequence of any intervening clouds layer as you suggest. It's due to the rocket moving through the region between the upper stratosphere into the base of the mesosphere where the air temperature actually climbs, where conditions aren't typically favorable for contrail formation.

Stunning view of Space X Rocket Launch over Yuma, AZ

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P3f2kGOYX4Q>

- gerry mander == It looks like a frikkin amoeba. The Norway spiral wasn't a rocket either. They must not be teachin' what rockets really look like in school.
- Yarini == rocket launch that goes parallel to the earth surface... makes sense lol, this must be one of those new rockets for 2018
- c ra == But I saw one like this a year and a half ago and the story was that it was space debris from a Chinese satellite. So which is it?
- Ed Wheeler == Who ever took the video put in SOUND EFFECTS... It made no sound why are you the only one with sound you are lair... You change the entire event by adding sound... This was not a rocket..I was in West Covina CA . It was directly over head and we heard no sound from it..
- While You Were Sheeping == It's NOT a rocket, it's in the lower stratosphere and not travelling even close to mach 1

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=odtwXD8Q3p8&t=43s>

- Marlena Sutherin == The ancient Egyptians had the drawing of this same shape on one of their hieroglyphs. This has been done before.
- Raul Cruz == Doesn't look like what we saw. It was perfectly round and disappeared suddenly. My friend checked on his sphone and they were already reports from LA and Bakersfield on the internet at the same time we were watching at it. Also this can't explain the small white and a bigger red separate lights from where it came out in the sky
- Deus == How comes we've never seen rockets do this before? Nobody has made that point... Ok maybe it is a rocket, maybe it's flying at an angle for some scientific reason, but what's with the massive force field looking thing around it? Why are there dots following the rockets giving off spiral lighting? Why were civilians not informed that there'd be this event going on right in front of their eyes? Or is this spacecraft something else, and the government are trying to hide it? Who knows.
- Kevin C == putting the obviously weird $hit to one side , how could a rocket carry enough fuel to do that pass and where the trippy $hit came from your guess is as good as mine .. and why do a fly by why not go up into space instead isn't that what it's supposed to be doing ??
- THAO NGUYEN == This is happening worldwide this is not space x. It's off world activities that even the govt can't control.

- Do Any of you see the rocket ? I dont see a rocket at all .
- Keep in mind it's supposed to be Launch and landing testing, Towards the end of the video, never seen a rocket like that.
- Ive seen allot more footage of like events from all over the world some date back to 2009. i can tell you they look the same and in 2009 this rocket didnt exist. Nov 7 2015 another one like this look it up make decision for yourself. Ill put a small clip on my page titled various sightings so you too can see the other sightings im talking about.
- Sorry but i see very little similarity in this video to the one you wanted me to see. the one u wanted me to see one can see the rocjet and boosters. this one you cant.
- this video here is pretty much the same as the nov 7 2015 one look it up i believe thirdphaseofthemoon has it . i have it on my facebook page .i saw that one pearsonally. And i can tell you there was no noise from it and there was a lighted sphere or light in front before all that happened.
- ON my facebook i also posted a small clip of various sightings all over the world that show the same similarities some date back to 2009 .that rocket was not created then. i believe the title to this video is misleading if u actually watch some other x falcon 9 tested flights you will see the difference.
- ask yourself why u can see the rocket in the others not in this one ? nighttime and distance is not a factor.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V2K96aY0tLw>

- Unchained == It's obviously not going anywhere near the speeds they claim and definitely not going to space....It's heading west, for whatever remains of it, to be dumped in the sea. Look how low it is in the sky, and how slow it's moving, when would it get to Hawaii, much less Asia. They say it takes less than 10 minutes to get to space; but flying parallel to the ground at near fighter jet speed, that thing would need many hours to clear land and reach the supposed edge of space.
- Dylan Gathings == This is an alien spacecraft. Look at how the orb is proppeling itself around not "falling" like the news said. Also how the "rocket" should be flying away right?, but it just stops once the spacecraft exits. Then two more orbs pop out the back of it. Then it turns transparent and disappears. These guys are really just saying this to not make people worried. Thats cool but we should know the truth. Just look at it. Common sense.
- Mike edna ==. I live in Masa, Az. I saw from E to W above my head the same exact thing you guys recorded.

- MeDallion Motion Pictures == The selected music by Rick Rosas makes everything come together. Great footage Rick but I thought this rocket was supposed to be headed into outer space to drop off a few communication satellites. Looks like this so-called rocket had other plans and decided to vroom completely off course and hang around in the sky. Because flying at a low altitude and dripping glowing white circular smoke rings hovering over a town really doesn't say this is a rocket launch into outer space. Did this thing ever make it to outer space, did it just vanish or maybe NASA wanted to tell us this because it kinda made sense?

- BountyUFC== I saw this with my own eyes, the smoke glowed in the sky behind it as if it was giving off a reflective glow and both of the objects, one in the front giving off the spearhead appearance and another close behind spinning and dancing around in a very strange manner eventually got dimmer, the smaller one dipped and eventually fell, the first larger one did the same very soon afterward. Almost like fireworks slowly running out of powder and then eventually vanishing over the mountain.
- Janakma Jana == This happens last year rocket my ass what type of rocket just be chillen not moving that's some alien $hit
- Savage T == if it was a rocket they woulda warned the people because they dont want them to start a panic. They lying they didnt know that was gone happen. Think about it. - arigabe123 == for those who actually believe this thats your belief...but proof is different....symmetry...and also the speedive witnessed many launches at cape canaveral fl...also further south in stuart florida and st lucie county.....rockets heading into space dont take so long....watch a shuttle launch...its quick then gone....trajectory and symmetry is all wrong for this to be a rocket launch.....plus they sped up the video to make it appear as if it was moving faster.....there are other videos...one took three minutes in view traveling sideways and another light trailing along...ok....the truth will only find those willing to see....truth is also blind....one sided.....

Something Terrible is Happening in the Sky in California, USA

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3UW_eSQD-tM&t=1s

- Hi, I did not have any idea what it was. It freaked me out. Good that it is not North Korea or nothing bad. Tired of war, violence. The more we try to make the world a better place, there is always something bad happening in the world. Probably that's why if we can't explain anything, we are scared. If we knew what it was, we would enjoy instead of being intimidated.
- 3Gunner == Hmmmm how come no Rockets except the last couple years looked like this ?
- james shipp == When did our supposed rockets become Interdimensional and let loose plasma energy into the atmosphere / science has definitely cross bred with the demonic.
- Janakma Jana == Rocket??? Since when do rockets just freeze in the middle of the air that's some alien $hit
- Gamer Fazer == And since when do send rockets during night?
- -----
- Ian Oeder [805 521 7273] == I saw this last night @7:30 pm in Arizona. I was coming home from Kingman and went through the Coyote Pass and saw what I thought was the moon through clouds. Although it was a clear night. My battery was dead so I couldn't record what I saw. It looked like a big iridescent vapor trail that glowed in the night sky.

Secureteam10 == <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HybD6ApqtDE>

- Tom Bubrig == I have a really simple question to ask about all the reports and videos of “lights in the sky”. The question is why do alien spacecraft need visible lights at all? I know what a solar flare is (like on a satellite) but that doesn’t happen at low altitudes at night. So if the aliens are trying to observe us without being detected, why run around with lights blazing? Surely interstellar spacecraft don’t navigate and avoid collision using visible light.
- conner mcLeod == Anyone noticed the flairs (lol) all end up forming triangles... cool clip... are e.t's copying us?
- Slayton == The big thing doesn't seem like it has a solid form, it's constantly shifting. Makes me think it's actually some sort of wormhole or gateway that's letting those triangles through. The triangles are fairly common to be seen solo but is THIS how they're getting here? And what the hell are they? Is there a craft between the lights that we can't see? Maybe we're only getting part of the picture here.... like the exhaust from their propulsion is being picked up by the camera but not the actual craft. It's too weird. Definitely seen similar things like this on other infrared channels though so it's definitely something that occurs in our sky.
- MrDragoncdxx == Looks like the orb opens a portal for all those other orbs to pass thru.
- Blueprint Walsh == I wonder why they make a formation of a triangle. I wonder if it’s related to the pyramids. Maybe they are hoping we will remember or recognize the shape. Very interesting.

Secureteam10 == <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HybD6ApqtDE>

- odd P. == The "mothership" looks like a flexible living entity ~ like an amoeba or something. Dimensional portal maybe? Not sure why UFOs like triangle formations.
- Brandon Brooks == I've just never in my life seen so many UFO captures, and this one is particularly worrisome. It's as if for years they were as stealthy as possible, and now they just don't care who sees them and when. Invasion imminent?! Geez.
- serial mom == Does it scary the crap out of anyone else that these things seem to be above our heads on more or less a daily basis and most people happily go about their bussines and have no idea this is happening? If more people took this subject seriously we would surley find out quicker what the hell is going on. It scares me as to what disclosure will actually reveal once it comes
- Destiny 22 == Im absolutely captivated on this particular video because I'm 99% sure its the same #UFO that comes to my Sieera Nevada sky often. I showed this to my next door neighbor lady who is co-witness sky watcher at night with me. Couple of weeks ago she was calling the UFO a 'jellyfish'. She watched this video and confirmed its same object we see here. I have 2 more ppl to show this to. Come see for yourself. Appx 50 minutes drive distance from Reno Nevada. Big goosebumps here in East Plumas County 96122.
- tephen Widden == TR-3B Astra, tracking alongside some kind of anti-grav stealth troop carrier. Still top secret technology, will be 2030s before it's revealed / acknowledged.
- Washton Mitchell == omfg this is the best ufo video to date..something major major major is happening and its already begun in silence undetected they are secretly wipeing human kind out

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IAfpGyspYqE>

- Jeremy Urdy == Okay so the government is gonna go ahead and say it was some type of "missile" test but I seen missiles before they don't look like that at all at least like with this unknown thing the little circle thing at the end doesn't look like no missile or rocket test. Wake up call people there are UFOS in this world this type of sighting has been seen multiple times before I seen one just like this over Brentwood CA and now it was the exact same but it was all blue and no noise was coming from it and it disappeared after like 2 min but it appeared again in another location now I don't believe in aliens but there is something in space we don't know or if there is the government is hiding it let's all be real about it
- Critical Thinker == What is wrong with the government and their shills. We all know what we saw. I don't care if all you paid shills/ trolls come at me. That's NOT a SpaceX launch. the pulsing craft indicates it was emitting energy. It could be earthly, who knows! It's called an Unidentified Flying Object. And that's exactly what it was, a UFO.
- J Mason == It's not a rocket since when do rockets fly across the sky? Never they shoot straight up you guys will see a plane Right. In front of your eyes land and still decide to believe it's a helicopter stop believing the lies doesn't even look like a rocket were???
Smh

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EGOaHm0s6Es&t=59s>

- Queen Aja Akhi == Ok....so this isn't what we saw... you can compare the videos it isn't the same. There wasn't one ounce of fire only what looked to be some type of deformed cloud. I was there so I saw it with my own eyes and IT DID NOT react the same way as the one in your video. Don't try to tell these people lies when u weren't there. I'm not saying it was alien BUT IT WASNT A ROCKET!
- aj cc == Rockets dont run greatly perpendicular to the earth. Especially considering how close by the supposed launch was at. Since when do rockets fly completely sideways to try to get to space? Most rocket launches ive seen had a mild arc. And what was the stationary object in the middle that was giving off pulses. Even if its a rocket it happend in 3 different places on 3 different occasions in less than a week. Whats the rush? And why such a big race to space. Idk man i would love to believe it. It just seems farfetched. And if it was true then what are the reasons behind the different occasions
- Nunya Bidness == So...Russia launched the same sperm rocket either on the same day or close to it. We launching Rockets from Russia now too? Right.....
- ChiefJustice Middleton == you fail to see how fast the rocket disappears out of view and why we never saw this type of phenomenon ever when NASA was launching their rockets back in the sixties and seventies
- L Ninja == I guess if you assume that everyone is stupid, this sort of video will convince thousands of people to deny what they saw ... But the problem is .. not everyone is retarded ... Explain the BLUE exhaust? I notice that agents like him keep playing the black and white version of the video because the mere fact that the ENTIRE thing is blue suggest that something other than rocket fuel is doing this ... EXPLAIN THAT
- Ernest Vigil == Shill. You are a government shill. Why don't you and your handlers get a clue about the American public, and the general public the world over, that we can handle the truth.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EGOaHm0s6Es&t=59s> more

- Wesley Fiegen == Who are you kidding... A rocket goes faster and upwards... And if they fly horizontally they go way faster.... And what idiot sends a rocket above populated area's?? You need to see the ufo above china there was a same one a few years ago! As you can see on YouTube... This is a other lousy explanation of the gouvernement.. You need to dig a little deeper into the subject.. So who is kidding who... I know what I see when I see it... Its defenitly not a rocket in my opinion...
- Levite718 == Why would they launch a missile over a very populated city without warning people so they don't fear for their life... The public should be put on notice.
- neil2226 == How do you explain it going so slowly across the sky? How do you explain the objects and the pulsing coming from the detached part? How do you explain the two moving objects going to it and away from it? Look at raw footage from a news helicopter no mate I'm sorry but that footage is not the same as the other clips of footage I have seen. What you're explaining is not what I'm seeing. That is barely going 1000mph let alone 4000mph. And aren't rockets meant to go 15000 on their way into space? What can pulse shapes in a vacuum? If they've already reached the vacuum of space then how on earth do you expect them to be able to get it back?
- Jay Walker == yeah sure it was a rocket lol...how in the world do u explain the swirls? never seen that at any rocket launch in florida
- ncle sam == your full of it I was there a rocket don't sit still in the air it was about 100 feet over the top of gladstones and it was blowing smoke rings and it wasn't 530 it was 830

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pNwkXhNxJ7s>

Changed My Name == I work in Lake Havasu City Az and I was on my way to work and saw this exact $hit! I pulled over to record it and on my phone it wouldn't record what I was looking at. And it was basically right over me!!' Then it disappeared! Holy $hit that Phoenix saw it too cuz Phoenix is like 4 hours away from us!

Isa Peacekeeper === Those "somethings" have speeds of ships not our own. THAT'S what it looms like to me. Even if the launch was a Space X and I have yet to see confirmation of that . . "whatever" was launched was "observed" by other than US and probably just in case it was something else. I can't imagine Space X had a faster rocket THAT SMALL that goes THAT FAST take aim at a Space X . . if the item on left (and I saw two around same size in diff. positions) was Space X WHY target practice with something Space X does not have for that small size and speed IMHO..... Probably more likely that THE UNKNOWN object flying too fast for ours probably turned its lights off appearing to disappear . . but still QUITE nearby. I have seen how they can detect radar is going capture them b4 it actually does and they make a conscious choice to "allow it to be seen" because their tech can elude naked vision AND radar. . . which they DO often, if they or their ships sense someone is checking them out..... I have seen how there are many who do protect. . . some stand down and "observe" and some have intervened. All non-military and not of Earth. Apollo 13 was an intervention and it involved the same type of weapons onboard the module that they attach to heads of rockets that no one wants. ... I have watched for more than 35 years missile defense tests with one launched rocket being intercepted by another. THEY HAVE NEVER travelled at the speeds we see from object on left

Melanieintn == The "somethings" can be seen in other videos coming in and of sight following the rocket. It was like, "Oops, better check this out, these humans gonna blow something up...gotta get a better look."

mcota5 == Truth Report That's what we're being told, however, I think it was very low for a rocket carrying 10 satellites, that is what the news and online reports are saying. Doesn't mean they're telling the public the truth. Questionable. And, yes I also noticed something coming towards it from the left side too. Hum. I'm in Cali and saw it flying by and pretty low.

Will H. == If this was SpaceX, why was it launched over populated areas that crossed flight paths to San Bernardino International, Ontario International, Bob hope International, LAX in addition to multiple municipal airports? What type of chemicals would stay illuminated in the sky without a light source?

Pamzy Love == This is pretty intense footage first thing I noticed that there was a plane or something heading towards it from what I understand all Air flights and whatnot are shut down when a rocket is being launched. Also once it was in the air there was that thing behind it lit up and then it slowly died out I take it that's rocket debris that was raining down on people's houses

- Phoenix Meeka EL === i am south of san diego and saw this same event...captured as much as i could on my phone video also...truly amazing,... hope it is the ancient ones returning to get rid of all the bully law enforcement, judges, banksters and lawyers along with all those who support them knowingly...my guess is about 15% of planet will dissappear and the rest of us can live in peace and no fear of their tyranny

VancouverCanucksRock == They say that it is illumated like that cause of the Sun. BS, that $hit is projecting those beams like a Flash Light!

Eric Imfeld == Not a missile. that plane would not have been flying that close!

MeDallion Motion Pictures == Hay @ 0:48 didn't the reporter say that thing was supposed to be launching communication satellites in the air and get it to outer space? That clearly looked like someone on the remote control of Falcon 9 made a big detour and stop the entire rocket in mid air. Ouch!!! outspace is straight up not curving and hovering over a city. The people who weren't aware of this supposed launch were freak'n out. So did this thing even make to space?

Kevin - M: Ehrenworth == That $hit in the sky wasn't a rocket I have lived in Lompoc and sneaked onto the beach when they were firing rockets from vandenburgh in the 90s I've seen many launches and that weird stuff in the sky is project bluebeam

Falcon 9 rocket launch provides spectacular view in Bakersfield

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JRzZI_nq6fk&t=28s

- venomblader == this was visible from 500 miles away, space program is just a cover up for all sleeping people. This is test of blue beam project, not the first and not the last. Its the only hologram technology possible thanks to chemtrails in the sky left by planes. nce they accomplish it the elite ruling this world will fake ufo invasion to lower the world population to 5 mln. Just open your eyes, make your own research and spend the last moments with your families.
- Terri Victor == I was sleeping during this event when it took place. But I swear I heard "I believe I can Fly " in the background.
- Nurse Chris == So many things wrong here, why didn't we see where it was launched from??.... and why the hell was it transparent???..... more importantly the reporter said it was supposed to be launched "into space" for communication purposes WTF?? Clearly it was not in space!!.... And last but not least WHY DIDNT THEY WARN THE PUBLIC!!!! y'all can't be this blind.....
- MastaMonkey == You fuc4ing retards that think this is just a rocket are morons. The thing behind it is pulsing energy

- Tracykeithwall == This is a test of a ion trail electro-magnetic device. See this video which shows a better vantage point of the transition between a rocket plume un-electrified starting at 2:22. The electro process goes through stages and emerges with oval plume that grows larger.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JRzZl_nq6fk It also turns horizontal and slows down so it cannot be the rocket itself if its achieving orbit as they say. It is NOT the sun lighting up the plume because you see the plume goes dark for a bit then lights up again and also notice the electrical star anomaly pulsing figure 8's out of the middle of the plume. The plume lights up because its now electrified plasma (ions from the rocket exhaust plume). They, the ions, have a current pushed through them and are like wires delivering current to the ionized rocket exhaust and the current forms 2 Birkland currents which later look like rope wrapping around each other typical of Birkland electro-magnetic behavior. What is the purpose of this device?
- Richard F J.r. == It went right over my house and I got very good photos of it
- PublicIgnorancelsGovernmentBliss == No...I know the explanation for flying horizontal right out into the ocean so they can just land that firecracker out where no one can see what's goin on. All u blind sheeple have zero ability to see the lies because ur ego is built on nothin but fuc4in lies! U dont research $hit u just regurgitate the bs lies that have been crammed down ur brainwashed throat....and that makes u "educated"...no that makes u indoctrinated

- Lisa Bunne == rippipip bull$hit watch any other launch none of them detach like this thing did and even the smoke figure is different. Oh and it wasnt going up and out it was practically hovering
- lppoqql == You actually believe its a Falcon rocket?? LOL look at it, Falcon cannot create such a huge light cone.
- Love == What kind of rocket can be seen from two different states at the same time at that size ?? Its not a rocket ! The news stations are owned too and are handed their script to readthere are several orbs following it and it seems as though its entering another dimension or portal. how is it that ppl in 3 states saw it at the same time , if it was just a rocket ?? Stfu u controlled minion.... no rocket is the size of the Moon so ur theory doesnt work....this indeed was like the moon only in its size because its a massive spacecraftNo rocket is large enough to be seen in several states at one time
- Dobby the Dovah == actually yeah americans who have seen a rocket launch before thats know that they go straight up you know toward space at 6 or seven thousand kmh. they dont cruise casually over the heavily populated areas like the good year blimp
- Loren Robertson == I can understand how that big thing could be a rocket of some sort. But that little thing flying erratically all over the area in all directions...now that is unexplainable IMO.

HUGE UFO OVER LOS ANGELES 12/22/2017 LIGHTS OVER L.A.

- pretty girl == The government just want to see the reaction from people. If enough folks get scared without question the elites know they can stage the fake alien attack & have everyone believe we're being attacked by aliens which will cause chaos and it'll be easier for them to control and enslave the masses. We are living in our last days. The great signs & wonders in the sky God talked about in the Bible is not of him but Lucifer himself and this one of those great wonders. Aint no such thing as aliens those are demons... People better wake up! Or its gone be alot of folks being easily manipulated into going to hell or accepting that damn chip.
- Casual Kiddo == That clearly just came into are atmosphere and not no space x rocket..I call major B's..That's clearly a Mothership and it minion's..That's just a small one wait till you see the super Mothership the size of a country or larger like the size of the whole planet or bigger...Only a realist like me knows the truth but it's sad that people are just lost in the sauce and don't want to know what's out there.
- CryptoCoin Vill == Casual Kiddo yeah im not hearing all that rocket bs. People dont undeestand how deep the rabbit hole goes
- oubleq6969 == I watched this thing too from Palm Springs and for those of you saying it was light up from the sun, you are full of $hit. It was bright as if light up LED, not from sunset. And I'll ask again, why do these so called rockets not fly directly straight up? Don't quote no text book either!

HUGE UFO OVER LOS ANGELES 12/22/2017 LIGHTS OVER L.A.

- Mark Mathews == People seeing it in Arizona and Nevada prove that it is not a rocket. Do you really think you could see a rocket from that far away? Oh yeah and the Earth is flat. Think about it. If you could see it from all the way in Arizona then there is no curvature to the Earth.
- Christopher S == Oooooo, Unsuccessful or possibly a cancelled portal opening , to see a successful portal opening recorded over Cern search cern spiral , anywho judging by the plumage it would seem the flight crew and its passengers are stardust ,
- Bryan Lombera == you know what it could be a rocket flying as low as a helicopter though like 2 300mph :
- PIFF SMOKER == You guys do know the government is in comment sections like these manipulating point of views and so forth. This isn't a rocket and its clear as day. I think I'm drawing the conclusion more and more everyday we are being manipulated and pulled away from God. This is a sign. Not a rocket.
- Jay C == How is it a rocket when it was floating in the same position for like 5 minutes before it started moving to the left. it didn't go straight up it went from right to left and then there was helicopters following it.
- VOODOO DRED == to those of you ignorantly repeating the mainstream narrative that this is a falcon 9..are really showing ur fear that it aint human..... could also just b rich dudes messing with portals.... google falcon 9 launches..they look nothing like this... people like to b parrots without researching coz of their natural fear for the other...

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AsDV9FYsjm8>

- Jack == what the fuck kind of rocket leaves a trail like that? Or travels horizontally instead of going straight up into space
- Jason Dee == Exact same thing happened in Florida. identical. look it up. They claimed that was a rocket as well. Bullshit. Its the grand delusion. If you pay attention as i did, THE SMOKE IS ALREADY THERE and its not going up, its going horizontal. Thats wat i see. I dont have to believe there story. My eyes can discern
- J Deuink == This is sad... wake up people... missile? Satellite? Never has there been one which looks like this. You can search far and wide, this is nothing they want us knowing about... smarten up and become a remnant before its too late.
- David Wilson == Space X my ass I just saw RFB and I agree with him that this isn't a rocket now they launched thousands of rockets and they just don't look like this come on people open your eyes or better yet wake up dead man
- Joe Reyes == I seen a copter under the light go by it

Bryan McHugh [<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AsDV9FYsjm8>]

how many "satellite launches" just LIKE this have happened since JUNE now? 35? 55? 70? These reports are NON STOP out of California.

Those are weapons! Nearly all of them are POTUS authorized plasma Space X warheads....

Any "satellite" launched up is to take down the progenitors of Bluebeam that felonious primate STEALTH SLOP ships are attempting to burn California from the inside out using NUTS powerful microwave beams.

Being able to see microwave beams with the naked eye takes an impossible amount of energy. Those STEALTH SLOP ships do not seem to be capable of torching the state from space. These cloaked STEALTH SLOP ships are getting fried out of the sky via plasma detonating out BOTH the front FORWARD moving detonation illumination identification

There is ONE other Space X "satellite launch" among the ever rapidly growing accounts of these "satellite launches" where this happens and the felonious primate STEALTH SLOP ship gets what looks like X-RAYED OUT OF EXISTENCE...

What is going on? Felonious primates have been using California as a propaganda arm and EVIDENCE DUMP and BURN pit since NO LESS than 1963. Yup JFK has always been even EASIER than this to solve and it always has been.

Stay out of their way. Those felonious primate STEALTH SLOP ships HIDING at LOW ALTITUDE behind holographic CLOAK are NOT space aliens.

- Kirk March == Dec 22, 2017 spaceX9 launch looks nothing like this. There are 3 or more objects 1 object is browned out just hovers. This video has orange red color from single engine; also stage separation the stage continues in the same direction as main rocket.
- 12\22\2017 The lead vehicle flying slowly due South just off coast of Camp Pendelton CA. Had clearly visible TWIN engines on rear.; the color was neon blue; the so called separated stage fluttered began emitting red orange dripping metal changed direction 2 neon blue engines became apparent on second vehicle, it went into power dive flying due west.
- Lead vehicle then nosed up and accelerated across horizon in 10 seconds gone.
- Last UFO remained hovering lost sight of it when night sky went dark.
- Don't know what it was, But it was no X9 unless it transforms into 2 different vehicles each powered by twin blue engines.
- Side note the separated vehicle flying due west left no zero trail in the sky, only lead vehicle flying due South left the massive floreelsence sky trail.

- LDNROAMER == No Sonic-Boom, how is that possible?
- Dallas Stars Fan == This was seen from amarillo Texas (partially)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8D-67WvYy3E>

- Timothy Okeefe == I dont think its space x....I can give you dozens of reasons...Instead in attempt to slow down the paid trollers that i see on every video....I challenge you to watch a few dozen of these videos....I actually seen in a video an airplane pass between the two orbs and in the smoke and even a little kid said...Hey see the airplane....And his dad said no way its that low.....The dad sounded like Seth Rogan...
- Mind Made Design's - DIY == No one has filmed from the other side. in all videos it go left --> it is a powerful led beamer
- NAG HAMMADI == I've seen satelight, launches they do not look nor act as this did. This footage has a illuminated ball of light followed closely by another doing maneuvers in the tail and the high tech satelight b.s. is protocol the same crafts were seen in northern call recently as well and they said middle testing however you can't do middle testing over a inhabitants city no military personnel would sign off on that
- Anthony Mccamey == its not a rocket. some of these people have no common sense whatsoever smh.. never has a rocket been able 2 stop in mid air and give off light at that power. dumb ignorant mfs
- Petrus Dijkzeul == Its a UFO, which idiot will launch a rocket over L.A, always Florida, open your eyes
- TheHonestSupremeTruth SupremeBeing == Its a missles that got destroyed by ufos. Missile just dont do that people

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AsDV9FYsjm8>

- bryan groom == It was a space x launch if you haven't seen yet
- Cheesecake BMX == mo how is that a launch it's going forwards not fuc4ing up and what was the thing it dropped
- Kimbarlee Moon == Yes, a rocket would be going up, not horizontal?!?!?
.... I have now seen some other news footage that confirms it was a Falcon 9 Space X rocket launch, and I could more clearly see it going upwards. My bad, I guess from footage taken in Arizona it looks like it is more horizontal than upwards. Thanks and take care!
- Will H. == This was NOT SpaceX... If it was, from the video I captured, the object would have crashed somewhere between Riverside and San Bernardino Counties-However there have not been any reports of any type of crash in the area.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AsDV9FYsjm8>

- Eduardo Sánchez == Thats defenitely not a satellite. I aint Buying all that government $hit. Stop hiding the truth and let the people know what really goes on in area 51!
- Natalie Logan == Videos of the same thing in CA. Media said it was rocket from SpaceX. Don't really believe that since it happened in two different states at the same time.
- Dynasty == Natalie Logan Correct! And since when do they launch rockets in the evening while commercial planes are flying near take off site???
- Banana Bus == I saw that in new mexico and it was huge 😱 😱 i got scared and it was weird i thought it was a gate way to heaven... Once i looked at it was gone

- adrian rodriguez == People are so fkn stupid most of ppl believe this is a rocket Thats insane thats been happening for years its not a fkn rocket u can tell easily is not a rocket just open your eyes. Ppl need to wake up
- Cypress0101 == Engineers have some explaining to do because no rocket causes that. . That was a long and wide trail that started from the beginning of the launch. It had to at least been using some kind of new launching technology. Again it wouldn't train from take off that thick
- Jeffrey-scott Bates == Clearly something breaking through the firmament into the waters above. No other space launch has looked like this. What is the glowing orb after the penetration through the firmament? Why do the "thrusters" seem to be shut off for a second, then back on looking like a bullet traveling through water? People that don't see that this is NOT a space launch are sleeping hard. I'm just not brainwashed by media (greek goddess of sorcery) and television (tell-lies-to-your-vision). Other night launches do not have any resemblance to the space x launches

UFO, rocket????? The unbelievable light show over Phoenix sky

- Alan Campbell == Rockets go vertically not horizontally that was Fallen Angel technology you're witnessing
- Aviator_Psands == Space x iridium 4 launch
- MrCoughupalung == STFU. Nobody is believing the government anymore. Wake up $hit head!!
- Shatner Williams == MrCoughupalung Haha, yep. They are lying sacks of $hit.
- David Wattie == That's not a rocket it's too slow and it's flying sideways not straight up.
- Timothy Okeefe == You realise we are watching light bend and curve....Also we are watching clouds of gas illuminated.....We don't have the tech to do this.....

SpaceX launch spooks the west coast, causes #aliens to trend [Fran Snyder]
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=myp5U38iVtE>

If it was that low over California, other states would not be seeing it too. The government is hiding something! I have proof....

The object flying was not that high up and you can tell by the video that its not high enough for several states to see it.... it was seen in all those places because it did not come from Cali. It came across those states before it ended up in Cali.

That object was NOT in space. It was not that high up over Cali at all!.... It was not a rocket!

They have been seen in several countries! Not just here in the US! There is no way 3 different states saw that at the same damn time that low to the ground!!

I'm not going to argue with you! YOUR the one that's the idiot and by keeping up the arguing proves it even more! The people who claimed they saw it was going over them, not way the hell over in Cali!! It was going over all 3 states! If it was a rocket and launched from Cali and going a different direction than those states, they would not have seen it!!....

I've seen rocket launches and they sure as hell do not look like that!.... If it was fricken going left from LA, it would be going towards the ocean, not visible to where the other 2 states were at!!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cH55VGVjkqo>

PAPA MIO == With all the fires in California why would they allow a rocket launch ? Not even a BBQ was allowed on my street. Not to mention the launch looked fake light does not pass through weeds and vegetation unless its the Sun! Which is the only light source that can pass through and bend around objects.

Track Diesel == okay, ive watched every space x launch and NONE OF THEM looked close to this

PNW Herpkeeper == Its weird the rocket should be vertical if its going to space and you see something that looks like water ripples by one of the objects.

Harry Nield == A rocket launch into space that goes sideways!!! Nothing like a rocket launch.

Granny Loca == Lawrence Beal I watched the whole thing on a balcony in Long Beach last night, this was not a rocket. I think the government tested our ICBM shield.

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8StqFTo-wL8>
- Kevo 73 == I was on the Pier in Oceanside California this was no rocket it came outta nowhere. I got 2min. of footage scared the hell out of me!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RFCcT5ZO3b8>

- TimoteoDeBaum == I am skeptical of these forceful and disrespectful comments insisting it was SpaceX. Either you're sheep or government bots... Why does it matter and what's wrong with a discussion of what it could've been? Who are all of these people defending this phenomena as a spacex rocket launch? And how would you know and why are you so angry at people with opposite opinions? Fake comments or conditioned sheep.
- Cheyenne Wild == did anyone actually see this specific rocket launch? because i've looked for videos of it starting and it looks completely different, is huge and flies straight up not almost vertical as this one, cant find anything else that looks like this.
